I. Old Business:

A. The committee met and approved meeting minutes from January 6, 2021 by a vote of 3-0

B. Hiring Update

The chief advised the committee interviews were completed and candidates were in the background portion. The chief advised the timeline for a hiring is the March Business Meeting in 2021.

C. Renter Permit Parking: The chief advised the committee that the borough's renter parking permit program has not gotten many applications and that parking enforcement will resume of 2/15/2021.

II. New Business:

A. Annual Report- The chief advised the committee the PD's annual report would be presented at the next business meeting.

B. Staffing: The chief presented the committee with a copy of the staffing report which recommended the hiring of three additional officers in the next few years. A copy was provided to all members of council.

C. Special event application: The chief presented council with a special event request for Lansdale Day on June 5, 2021. The committee agreed to table the motion until March of 2021 based on the crowd restrictions related to COVID-19.

D. Snow Alert Parking: The chief spoke with the committee regarding cars not moving during the snow alerts and suggested council consider increasing the fines from $15 to $50.00. The committee agreed to move this to council.
